TO-DAY'S GAMES.

The Old Soldiers from Dayton gave the Stogies and the spectators of yesterday's ball game a great scare in the eighth inning, when they rallied at the bat in handsome style and took advantage of ragged play by the Wheeling fold that doesn't show in the tabulated score. It was the old trouble again—failure of players to call out the fielder to whom the ball properly belonged. Twice in the eighth when the Daytonians tied the score, both Strang and Leahy went after balls and both stopped short and let the sphere fall safe. This would seem to demonstrate with sufficient strength the need of an assistant captain in the infield, either Lyons or Niles, who should call out the fielder who has the best chance for the play. With such an arrangement in yesterday's game Dayton would have been shut out, and a heart-breaking ten-inning struggle would not have been necessary.

Poole and Moore were the opposing twirlers and Eddie had far the better of the argument. But for the ragged support he received in the eighth inning he would have shut out the visitors without a run and but four hits. As it was, four of the nine hits recorded against him were the vicious scratches in his leg, which he hit hard and often. Dobbs distinguished himself by hitting out for two clean three-base hits and a single, besides going down to first once on a pass and scoring a neat sacrifice hit. "Dobbs" was attired in sky-blue trousers and yellow striped stockings, but there's a new streak in composition—quite the contrary, in fact.

Wheeling opened up heavily on Moore in the first inning, when Dobbs worked his way to the initial bag on four wide ones and scored on Niles' fine two-bagger to the fence. On Donahue's tie to Donnelly, "Billy" traveled on to third, and Lyons' fly to Miller carried him home.

Again in the second the Stogies made the circuit of the bases, Leahy getting a life on Middleton's error, stealing second and scoring on Dobbs' first three-bagger, after two were out. Dobbs was left on third.

Niles scored the fourth run in the fifth inning, reaching first on Whalen's fumble, going to second on Donahue's successful bunt, to third on Lyons' sacrifice, and the run came in on Niles' out at first.

The visitors could do nothing with Poole until the eighth. Moore laid out a strike-out, but Donnelly was given a base on balls. Then Whalen flew out to "Pop," and the fans breathed a sigh of relief, but just here the beautiful uncertainty of the game was given a striking exemplification, and the Stogies' nice lead of five runs was cut to nothing before the smoke had cleared. With Donnelly on first and two out, Frank popped up a little fly that either Strang or Leahy could have taken, but each thought the other would, and both stopped short, the ball falling safe and allowing Donnelly to score. Then "Pop" Riemann's scratch two-bagger sent Frank to third, and "Miller" infield single scored him. "Lois" Kraus met one for three bases, scoring Riemann and Miller. "Billy" Niles got mixed up on the throw to catch Kraus at third, the ball rolled out toward left field and the frisky German came in with the run that tied the score. Middleton hit for another scratch single between Leahy and Strang, but Cawley ended the agony by striking out.

Neither side did anything in the ninth. Lytle's two-bagger going for nothing, but in the tenth Wheeling pulled the game out of the fire. With Leahy on out, Cawley hit for a single and Poole followed suit, amid great enthusiasm. Cote was nearly thrown out at third—in fact, many fans asserted it was an out—but as the inning finally resulted, one run would have been scored even if Cote had been deeded. So Dayton's claim that they were pinned in by a single and a home run, called upon for a hit, and he responded nobly, sending one over the pitcher's head that scored Cote and Poole with the runs that won the game. The next two batters were out.

In their half the Daytonians were blundered and the game was Wheeling's. Score:

CAN CONSUMPTION BE CURED

By The New Treatment?

HOLYOKE, Mass., Aug. 21, '97.

THE R. T. BOOTH CO.,
 Dear Sirs—Booth's "Hyemal" and Home Treatment Complete has cured me of Consumption, emphysema of the lungs and West's anemizing it tuberculosis of the lungs. Four months of the time I traveled in New Mexico and Colorado Springs, returning home much weaker, weighing 135 lbs. and $600 out of pocket. My friends did not think it possible for me to live two weeks. My home physician, Dr. J. M. Tustin, advised me to go to the Booth office and try your treatment. After eight days I returned home with the "Hyemal" Complete. I used it night and day. Would not take $300 for my exhaler. To day I weigh 165 pounds. Have had no cough for six months. My friends consider there will be no return of the disease, as this was in September, 1896, I sincerely endorse Booth's "Hyemal" to all with like trouble or weak lungs. You are at liberty to use this as you think best.

Mrs. E. A. SMITH.
 If you or your friends are suffering from this disease, it is a crime to neglect it. The use of "Hyemal" is guaranteed and you risk nothing except being cured.
 "Hyemal" sold by all druggists, or sent by mail, Price $1.00. Extra bottles 50c.

BASE BALL COMMENT.

The Inter-state race is becoming very exciting, and any one of four clubs has a chance for the rag. This morning for the first time in months Toledo does not figure at the top of the list. New Castle's second defeat of the Mud Hens and the double victory of Port Wayne over Youngstown turned the trick. As Mansfield also won, the four leaders are now beautifully bunched, and it will be a scrap from now till the finish of the season.

Wheeling fans would like to see Port Wayne win, for the reason that a Wheeling man—Jack Glascock—is at the helm there. If his team wins the pennant the victory will be a deserved one, for the Hoosier team was built up after the others had lined up for the season, and at the start it was not believed that Glascock would be able to gather a first-division team. All honor to "Pebble Jack." He's a tricky one and has made himself unpopular here by his unscrupulous methods on the ball field, but "wif a that" he's "Our Own Jack," and Wheeling's with you, old boy, so long as the Stogies are not in the hunt.

Of the four leaders Toledo has the least chance now. The trouble is in Strobel's pitching corps. Ewing and Cates are the only effective ones he has on tap now, while all of the twirlers of the New Castle, Mansfield and Port Wayne teams are pitching glidedged bats. Toledo's weakness at this stage of the game.

Among the players of the Inter-state New Castle is generally accounted the most dangerous team in the bunch. Figgemier, Wadsworth, Streitt and Smith, all are pitching great ball, and besides the Yankees have more games at home than any of the other bidders for the championship. The Mansfield pitchers are pitching pretty good ball, especially Irwin, but this team doesn't look so dangerous as the Pennsylvanians. Port Wayne, however, has the lead, and in Eugene Swain and Stralger, Glascock has a trio of slab artists who are hard to discount.

Youngstown and Dayton are tied for sixth place. Wheeling is in fifth position, twelve points ahead.

Toledo is scheduled to play here Friday and Saturday, a double-header; on Saturday, Manager Lytle was endeavoring last night to have one game each on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, but has not yet heard from Strobel or Gilks.

LOVERS OF FOOTBALL.

Discussing the Team to Represent Wheeling This Fall—Several of the First West Virginia Boys to Figure Will get in the Game Early.

Local lovers of football are beginning to take an interest in the game since the approach of the cooler season, and are wondering what kind of an aggregation will represent the city on the 1899 gridiron. W. A. C. made a gilt-edged record last year, which was the most successful, from a sport standpoint, of any season here, and there are indications that point to a still greater success this fall.

No steps have been taken yet to form a team, but there is a desire to take the field early so as to be in shape to meet all comers at the start and hold a team together which shall be perfect in signals and team work. There has always been some difficulty in securing as many as eleven men, a condition which happily will not prevail this fall, the words being full of hardy boys anxious to get in the game.

One drawback in other years has been to secure a representative team of Greater Wheeling, and in consequence there was not the interest displayed had the players been better known to the majority of the patrons. It is recognized that Wheeling is a poor town, and that the football team is as popular here as in other towns, and owing to this drawback the gallant gridiron heroes who furnished good football were not given the support deserved. This season will see a strong combination drawn from Wheeling, Martin's Ferry, Astoria, Bridgeport and Bent in these towns. They have promised to play, and in a week or two a meeting will be called to discuss ways and means of organizing.

Several of the stars on the First West Virginia regiment team are to figure in the local eleven, and are bound to duplicate the glories of the soldier team, the gridiron and still possess the football. Among them are John J. Silpner, of Benwood, guard; Allen Blake, of Weston, center, who now lives at Benwood; Howard Edwards, half back, Moundsville; James Sweeney, Martin's Ferry; Frank and James Norington, Wheeling. These boys know the game and still possess the football. They are the stars in the camp games. There will be many of the W. A. C.'s, but how many is not determined. The Edwards boys said last fall that they were through with football, but pressure will be brought to bear on them to play. Dulin, Barrett, Will Hindman, Will Madala, Royce, and the others are likely to figure again, while the Madlons ought to produce promising candidates. Bert Pickett, one of the Madlons, showed senior form last year.

IDOLITA'S EASY WIN.

Of the Rich Horse Review Stake the Feature of the Dubuque Races Yesterday—The Fastest Three Year Old Futurity Ever Trotted.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Aug. 29.—Idolita, owned by Frank Jones, of Portsmouth, N. H., pulled down the winner's share of the rich Horse Review stake for 3-year-old trotters to-day. The little bay walked away from the field in each of the three heats and won hands down. The purse was worth $20,000, and was the third of a series of futurity offerings put up by John C. Bauer, of Chicago. To-day's race was the fastest 3-year-old futurity ever trotted. The first heat was made in the following time: 23, 1:06, 1:40, 2:12. This was the fastest of the three heats and equals the 3-year-old record in a class trot at Louisville, Ky.

The money was divided as follows: Idolita, owned by Frank Jones, $9,000; Extacy, owned by H. C. McDowell, of Lexington, $4,000; Rita E., owned by W. H. Brown, of Salt Lake, $2,500; Irma Electric, owned by Henry Axtell, Dallas, Texas, $1,250; Dick Trick, owned by Marcus, of Montana, $200.

The balance of the purse was divided between the nominators of sires of the winner and the second horse. Of this amount the estate of Senator Stanford secured $2,000.

Idolita, the favorite in the betting, was in danger of losing the race. He led all the way in the first heat. Coming down the stretch Extacy challenged the leader, but broke fifty feet from the wire and lost what looked like a chance of the first honors of the heat. Crystalline broke at the start, and with Logan was distanced.

In the second heat Extacy broke again, this time at the quarter. Idolita went out to the front and took things easy. There was a hard struggle from the half pole to the wire between Rita E. and Daly's colt, My Trick, for second place. The Montana colt closed up a gap of twenty lengths and caught the only half a length behind Rita E. This heat was slow in 2:14.

Again in the third heat Idolita cut out the pace. Extacy broke at the half, but caught her gait and came down the stretch neck and neck with Rita E., and this time beat the latter to the wire by a nose in a furious drive. Grace Onward was a close fourth, with the others well up. The time of the third heat was 23, 1:06, 1:39, 2:14.

The 2:20 pace, worth $2,000, was easy for the favorite, Robert Fitzsimmons. The first heat of the third race, the Central stakes, for 2-year-old colts, was a close one. The favorite, Grace Onward, was the field was well bunched, with Copeland, the favorite, on the pole. At the last turn Altoka and Humboldt Malt pulled out of the bunch, followed by Aragon K. The three races down the stretch side by side and finished noses apart. The three remaining heats went to Sir Charles, in slow time. Copeland broke continually, and was unable to get inside the money. Dr. Speltman gave the crowd a sensation in the third heat by pulling out of the bunch at the half and setting a clipper. Sir Charles headed him and took down the purse.

To-day's weather was almost perfect for racing, perhaps a trifle too warm. Fifteen thousand people saw the contests.

Putting food into a diseased stomach is like putting money into a pocket with holes. The money is lost. All its value goes for nothing. When the stomach is diseased, with the allied organs of digestion and nutrition, the food which is put into it is largely lost. The nutriment is not extracted from it. The body is weakened and the blood impoverished.

The pocket can be mended. The stomach can be cured. That sterling medicine for the stomach and blood, Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, acts with peculiar promptness and power on the organs of digestion and nutrition.

It is a positive cure for almost all disorders of these organs, and cures also such diseases of the heart, blood, liver and other organs, as have their cause in a weak or diseased condition of the stomach.

There is no alcohol or other intoxicant contained in "Golden Medical Discovery." Substitutions are imitations. Imitation money is worthless. So are imitations of Dr. Pierce's "Discovery." Get the genuine.

Mr. John L. Coughenour, of Glenage, Somerset Co., Pa., writes: "I had been doctoring for about a year and a half, being unable to get most of the time. The doctor said I had heart disease and indigestion. My appetite was unusually poor. I was weak and nervous, and my heart beat irregularly, sometimes very short of breath. Finally I wrote to you for advice. I did not think your diagnosis was right, but I ordered six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and began its use. After using three bottles I began to improve slowly and soon went to work, and I have been working ever since."

Free. Doctor Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-bound edition, or 31 stamps for the cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

BOXING.

Frank Saulsbury, of East Liverpool, and the "Vigilant Kid," of the South Side, will make the preliminary to the McClelland-Hopkins battle at the Metropolitan club, one week from to-morrow night. Saulsbury is considered a good local man in East Liverpool, is a young potter weighing 125 pounds, and a host of his friends want to see him tried out and will come here to do some rooting. The Wheeling lad is training hard for the even.

The McClelland-Hopkins bout is due to draw a big crowd. It will be a "peach" of a contest.
